Who We Are

CJF is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization created to aid and assist California jazz musicians in financial or medical crisis.

What We Do

We provide access to quality social and economic services for eligible applicants. Since its founding in 2006, CJF has assisted hundreds of California jazz musicians in crisis, helping with emergencies as they arise.

A referral network of medical professionals is ready to provide essential healthcare services to qualified recipients on a sliding-scale basis.

CJF raises musicians' awareness of the importance of prevention and early treatment of disease through free public education and outreach programs.

CJF helps prevent homelessness.
To date we have provided over $200,000 in housing assistance to California's jazz musicians.

Who We Reach

The CJF membership rolls have doubled in the past few years, reflecting our growing impact and stature within the jazz and general arts community in California.

We have 7,000 Friends on our Facebook page and a growing presence on Twitter. We regularly communicate with nearly 3,500 members, donors, other supporters and sponsors through electronic and print media.

We are building support through outreach committees in the Coachella Valley and Orange County.
